

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1894.

NO. 66

ROWLAND.

—John Adams is better. Mr. Harry Dunn was in town this week.

—We are in receipt of an excellent communication, which is too lengthy for this correspondence.

—Messrs. Frank Smith and James McCauley, both of Gairard, have moved their families to this city. They have left Egypt and are now in Israel.

—Mrs. Susan Newcomb and her pretty daughter, Miss Julia, who have been visiting W. H. Naylor's family, have returned to their in Brodhead. Everett Horv, chief of police, Richmond, was here Thursday.

—It has been reported that there is a case of scarlet fever here, and for several days, there has been considerable fright and unnecessary talk about it. It is settled, however, that the report is not true, and the people are going back quietly to business.

—Judge Barnett has moved his office to a room on Judge Shelton's premises and is prepared to deal out justice, by retail, his court not having wholesale jurisdiction, as another police judge, in the country, from whose decision there is no appeal; it being final in every case, from the lowest misdemeanor to murder.

—The old theory, by which the negroes were deluded and led to believe that they owed eternal allegiance to the republican party, because of their freedom, is fast being exploded by the more learned and intelligence of that race. That the democrats gave them their freedom, at the point of the bayonet, is a fact which no honest historian will deny. The puny arm of Mr. Lincoln could not have enforced the proclamation of 1862. It had to be enforced at the point of the bayonet in the hands of the Federal forces, who gladly fought till the close of the war. There were many more democrats than republicans in that army and not one of them would enslave a negro to-day if he could. They are all in favor of elevating him in point of education. It is also true that the greater part of employment or help, of any kind, received by them comes from democrats. Let them be taught that the hosts of McClellan, Hancock and others are still their friends and they are free to vote as they choose.

HUBBLE.

—Bro. Arnold will fill his pulpit here next Sunday.

—Ed Minor has gone to Versailles to build a warehouse.

—A basket meeting in connection with the county meeting at Rush Branch Saturday.

—A good number of our young folks attended the hop at Hustonville Friday night and report a good time.

—Gentry Bros. sold some 1,000 pound steers at 3c. Woods & Lynn sold some 1,000 cattle to Eshanks Bros. at 3c.

—Prof. J. E. Robinson was up from Mackville Sunday to see his people. Mrs. J. A. Hammonds and little daughter are visiting relatives in Casey and Pulaski.

—There will be a box supper at the Albright Hall, Thursday night, the 25th, and all the young people are invited to attend, and old ones too as the supper is for the benefit of the church. We hope all will feel and take an interest in the supper.

—Mr. J. G. Frith has received his assignment at Jarnett's distillery. Mrs. P. Heron has been quite ill for a few weeks, but is convalescent at this writing. Miss Fannie Nichols and sister, of Louisville, have been spending a few days with their brother, W. S. Nichols, of our town.

—Mrs. Mattie Carter went to Mt. Vernon and spent Saturday night with her father, Mr. Lewis. Capt. A. H. Evans, the Master of Brodhead Lodge, No. 556, went to Louisville this week to attend the Grand Lodge. Mr. W. H. Baker, of Woodstock Lodge, also went on the same train. Miss Alice Reynolds has gone to Missouri to spend a few months.

—Messrs. Hughes and Aldridge, of Gairard county, are visiting the Woodyard and Cherry families. A. W. McMurry has been spending this week in our neighborhood, but he will go to Kirksville next Saturday. R. S. Martin is spending this week at Junction City. Mr. D. R. Patton has returned from an extended trip to the mountains. Mr. A. E. Prather, of Covington, is visiting his brother.

—During a recent conference at Wahpeton, Minn., several of the ministers were visiting the Red River Valley University at that place, and were taking in Latin class. One of them chanced to pick up a copy of Caesar, belonging to a certain very popular young lady student, and found the following poem on a fly leaf of the book:

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—There is great complaint about the scarcity of water here.

—A protracted meeting begins here to-night. Elders Ballou and Taylor will conduct it.

—The residence of Thos. Taylor was destroyed by fire last Monday. It caught from a defective flue.

—All who have friends buried in the cemetery here should aid the ladies, who are interested in improving its appearance.

—Government officers were here from Washington this week investigating alleged pensions frauds. Startling developments are expected.

—Messrs. White & Kroeger are quarrying rock for the foundation of two new brick buildings. If anyone doubts that Mt. Vernon has a future, let him come here and see the enterprise exhibited and he will doubt no longer.

—Mr. Will Cocks and Miss Lulu Whitehead were united in marriage at Jellico, Tenn., Monday, Oct. 8th. May life's choicest blessing be scattered along the pathway of this excellent young couple.

—The S. E. Kentucky Medical Society had a successful meeting here last Friday. The visiting physicians were met at trains by committee of local M. Ds. and escorted to place of entertainment. A banquet was given at the Joplin House that evening. Mr. R. G. Williams delivered an address in his most graceful and impressive style.

—Mrs. James Maret, who has been ill for some time, still remains in a critical condition. We trust that this estimable lady will soon be restored to health. Mr. Hoge Brown and family moved to Gairard county, after a short sojourn in our midst. We regret to lose such good citizens. Mr. and Mrs. J. Stephens moved Wednesday to their farm near Berea. Mr. Pat Welsh now occupies their residence here.

—Mrs. Mary Boggs, of Madison, visited Mrs. W. J. Sparks this week. Mrs. J. S. Reppert spent last week with relatives here. Mrs. Cleo Brown has returned from the city. Mrs. S. L. Whitehead and family have returned to Virginia, after a visit to relatives. Mr. J. W. Neabitt has returned from a trip to New York. Dr. Eugene Brown is building a new residence. The Aid Society will meet with Miss Mattie Williams next Saturday. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Carson are up from Crab Orchard.

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Bro. Pike preached at the Baptist church last Saturday and Sunday.

—The democratic convention that met Saturday nominated Daniel Owens as a candidate for justice of peace and Oscar Reynolds for constable.

—Messrs. John T. Smith and J. R. Hawkins, two gentlemen from Knoxville, Tenn., who are selling a steam and vacuum washer and a new patent paint, have been stopping a few days with us. They sold about 25 counties to J. H. Albright.

—There will be a box supper at the Albright Hall, Thursday night, the 25th, and all the young people are invited to attend, and old ones too as the supper is for the benefit of the church. We hope all will feel and take an interest in the supper.

—Mr. J. G. Frith has received his assignment at Jarnett's distillery. Mrs. P. Heron has been quite ill for a few weeks, but is convalescent at this writing. Miss Fannie Nichols and sister, of Louisville, have been spending a few days with their brother, W. S. Nichols, of our town.

—Mrs. Mattie Carter went to Mt. Vernon and spent Saturday night with her father, Mr. Lewis. Capt. A. H. Evans, the Master of Brodhead Lodge, No. 556, went to Louisville this week to attend the Grand Lodge. Mr. W. H. Baker, of Woodstock Lodge, also went on the same train. Miss Alice Reynolds has gone to Missouri to spend a few months.

—Messrs. Hughes and Aldridge, of Gairard county, are visiting the Woodyard and Cherry families. A. W. McMurry has been spending this week in our neighborhood, but he will go to Kirksville next Saturday. R. S. Martin is spending this week at Junction City. Mr. D. R. Patton has returned from an extended trip to the mountains. Mr. A. E. Prather, of Covington, is visiting his brother.

—During a recent conference at Wahpeton, Minn., several of the ministers were visiting the Red River Valley University at that place, and were taking in Latin class. One of them chanced to pick up a copy of Caesar, belonging to a certain very popular young lady student, and found the following poem on a fly leaf of the book:

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large size 50c and 81c.

The republican candidate for county judge in this county is so much like the Irishman's flea that we could hardly get our kodak to focus on him, but after several attempts we at last succeeded in getting a pretty fair picture as the accompanying cut shows. At least we are sure his friends will readily recognize him. It will be observed that he wears a beggar and cadaverous appearance. This is the result of the severe strain he is undergoing in trying to do the Atlas trick, of carrying the world on his narrow shoulders. It is a pretty heavy undertaking and another proof of the aphorism, that fools rush in where angels fear to tread. Don't understand us, however, to charge that our hero is a fool. He is "not by no means," on the contrary, he is an exceedingly wise man—in his own conceit. He thinks he can dupe the people of this democratic county to elect him judge, but he is gnawing a flea. He tells the voters that he is a lawyer, but there is some question about that. At least his merits, in that line if he has any, have never been recognized to any considerable extent, or the court records would show it.

There is no mistaking the fact that the would-be county judge is a man of parts. In other words, he is little but he is loud. He carries the entire republican party of Lincoln county in his inside pocket, don't you know, and when he opens his mouth it straightway obeys. He commanded that he be nominated and it was done. In fact whenever he says to a willing henchman "Go," he goeth, and to another "do this," he "doose" it pretty quick already. And that makes us say what we do say, that the republican candidate for county judge is the greatest man of his kind that ever wore shoe leather.

Look at that face with its intellectual and what-I-do-not-know-isn't-worth-knowing expression stamped on every lineament. It is study. It is a revelation. The more you see it, the more you don't want to see it. But enough. The subject begs description and we will take a rest, promising "more anon" as the days go by.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—J. M. Durhan and wife are in Louisville this week buying goods.

—Rev. H. M. Shouse, who is now a student of Georgetown College, filled his appointment at the Baptist church Sunday.

—There was a party at Mr. D. G. Elliott's Saturday night, which was well attended and highly enjoyed by the young people.

—The debate which began at the Christian church Monday between Revs. Gilder, of the M. E. church, and Montgomery, of the Christian church, is said to be progressing finely.

—There are those here who believe that Col. Silas Adams had as much to do with White's injunction as White himself. He was as much opposed to the holding of a primary as White. Besides it is strange indeed that White would forbid the holding of the election when he was not subject to its action. The colonel is not altogether free from political chicanery and who knows but he saw that his cake was dough, and joined Johnny D. to avoid defeat at the hands of the Yellow Creek man?

—George Jeter and James Spears, who were appointed a committee to canvass this precinct and ascertain the will of the democracy as to who should run for justice of peace, completed their work on the 9th inst. And the result was that J. A. Wall was chosen by a good majority over W. P. Keeney. The race will now be between Wall and Rube Staton, who is the republican candidate. The district is very close and there is beginning to be much interest manifested in races. It is reported that at least 25 republicans will vote for Wall, though he will lose a few democrats. So it is hard to tell what the result will be.

—People who are interested in "the poor man's breakfast table" will be disgusted to note that sugar took another drop of a sixteenth of a cent a pound yesterday and roasted coffee fell half a cent a pound. Breakfast bacon is still up, but farmers are not complaining about that. —Indianapolis Sentinel.

—Little Lida Crum, of Boyle county, fell from an apple tree onto a picket fence and was fatally hurt, one of the pickets entered the stomach.

—St. Joseph Infirmary at Huston, Texas, burned, cremating two sisters of charity and severely burning a number of others.

—Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, widow of the famous Confederate raider, is now the principal of a girl's school in Missouri.

—A man in Topeka, Kan., is a member of forty-one secret societies.

The Sleeping-car Porter (to a distinguished statesman)—You must excuse me for calling you up at 2 o'clock in the morning, Mistaan McKinley, but we've stopped at Grass Valley Junction and dere's two night watchmen wants you to come on de back platform and tell 'em how it is de foreigner pays de tax.—Chicago Record.

HUSTONVILLE.

—The refined and elegant Miss Beatie Moore and Mr. E. L. Powell are to be married on the 23d inst. at the home of the affianced bride's grandmother, Mrs. McCormack.

—The boys gave a hop Friday night at Yowell's hotel, which was enjoyed by a number of home couples, only a few visitors being present. The Danville orchestra furnished the music for the occasion. Terpsichore was extremely propitious until about 2:30.

—Mrs. E. C. Walton was with her sisters, the Misses Cook, a few days. Circuit Clerk J. P. Bailey has been among us a few days. W. D. Weatherford has gone to Richmond. Miss Minnie Drye, of Bradfordsville, is visiting relatives here. Messrs. Willis Shreves and Henry Gartin, two of Bradfordsville's handsomest young men, attended the wedding Tuesday. Mr. Will Hawkins and his sister-in-law, Miss Sallie, were here for a few days. Miss Fannie Harper left for Bowling Green Tuesday, where she will attend the Normal School.

—Mr. Wray Wharton, of Michelsburg arrived Tuesday and he and Miss Jennie Reid accompanied Mr. Lud Evans and Miss Lizzie Drye to Louisville Wednesday, where they were married at the home of Rev. Spencer, pastor of the Central Christian church. They will go on a bridal tour to Mammoth Cave. Mr. Evans is a popular drummer with H. M. Creel, of Louisville, and Miss Lizzie is one of the West End's loveliest beauties. The wedding party was entertained at Mr. Sam Reid's Tuesday evening, where they received many congratulations and some beautiful presents.

—The wedding of Mr. D. S. Skinner and Miss Mary Dodd Tuesday morning was a lovely affair. Only relatives and particular friends were present. The parlors were tastefully and delicately decorated with flowers and everything tended to make it enjoyable. The bride was dressed in a brown cloth tailor made suit, with a bouquet of white carnations, and being a beautiful and elegant lady, looked handsome indeed. The bridesmaids, Misses Julia Stagg and Jennie Reid, were beautifully dressed, and the attendants, Messrs. J. H. Hocker and J. H. Reid, looked well enough for any bridegroom. Bro. Milliken officiated and the ceremony was said by those present to be the most beautiful they ever heard. Miss Dollie Williams played Mendelssohn's wedding march and while the ceremony was being performed she played "Promise Me" very sweetly. The graceful elegance of the bride and bridesmaids set the affair off most charmingly. Many beautiful presents were presented. We wish them a long and prosperous life and a life long conjugal felicity. Let the good work go on.

—A naughty exchange says there is scarcely anything a woman cannot do with a hairpin. She uses it to pick her teeth, button shoes, clean finger nails, punch bed bugs out of cracks, fasten up stray bangs, clean out her husband's pipe, scratch her head, pick her toenails, run it into cakes to see if they are done, and about a million other things that we poor deluded men know nothing about.

—A Chicago paper says there are in Chicago at least 5,000 places in the manufacturing district where workmen are in the habit of going for liquor. These saloons are purposely placed near the factories, so as to more easily absorb the men's wages. If each one of these saloons took in $10 a day the sum would amount to $50,000 a day, or $300,000 for a week of six days.

—Congressman Wilson says of the last session of Congress: The record of Congress, bumbling and slow as it was, utterly inexcusable, as a part of it was, is a record of more done for the American people, for the plain people of this country, than by any other Congress in the history of this people.

—It is not generally known that it is unlawful to trade a revolver, but it is nevertheless. The Grayson Gazette cites an instance where Jake Nugent of that place was recently given the lowest fine which is $50, for trading a revolver for an old brass watch.

—Two weeks from Tuesday the American people will say at the polls whether they are in favor of taxing the masses for the enriching of the classes, or of equal justice to all, with special privileges to none.

—The first session of the 50th Congress was the longest ever held. It lasted 321 days. Speaker Carlisle presided.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c, for large bottles. At A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Mattie Ma of Chillicothe, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

18 CONGRESS.....JAS. B. MCCREARY
 For County Judge.....JAS. WALKER GIVENS
 " Clerk.....G. B. COOPER
 " Attorney.....J. B. PANTON
 Sheriff.....T. D. NEWLAND
 Assessor.....E. D. KENNEDY
 Jailor.....G. W. DEBORD

THE democratic convention at Mid-diesboro nominated Hon. Geo. E. Stone, of Casey, for Congress in the 11th district. All the counties were represented and great interest was manifested. The candidates were Gov. Hindman, Gilbert O. Garrard, John D. Black and S. C. Hardin. After the 15th ballot the weakest man was dropped. Hindman was the first to go out and Hardin next. Hindman was then re-nominated and after an adjournment, the result was soon obtained, the nomination being made on the 21st ballot with Stone 64 and Black 46 votes. Black and Garrard made short speeches pledging their support to the nominee, and the convention adjourned amid much enthusiasm. The nomination is an excellent one. Mr. Stone is in the prime of vigorous mental attainments and is a most eloquent and attractive speaker. Though repeatedly importuned by friends to stand for office his retiring disposition and modesty have heretofore kept him from seeking political preferment. He was born in Russell county about 46 years ago, and is the son of Bonaparte Stone, who was a gallant Confederate soldier. Deprived of a father's care at the time he most needed it, George had to strike for himself. He secured a fair education and with his brother, Hon. J. Boyle Stone, studied law. Obtaining license to practice, they formed a partnership, and their firm is now widely known and much sought after by litigants. Mr. Stone's mother was a daughter of Hon. Bryant Y. Owsley, a near relative of Gov. Owsley, and a man of high attainments. He served a term or two in Congress back in the 40s and was otherwise honored by an admiring constituency. In speaking of Mr. Stone, Col. T. P. Hill said: "He is, everything considered, the noblest man I know and a most deserving one. Self-made, reliable, honorable, industrious, sober, pure in habits and as modest as a woman, with the courage of a lion when necessary. He is a born lawyer of high ability and will be an ornament to Congress." If the present row in the republican camp continues, Mr. Stone is certain to be the next Congressman from the 11th and he will at once take rank with the best men in the body. The democrats of that district have a glorious possibility and they will be on their mettle from the start. Let them go in to win and victory will be theirs.

Hon. W. C. Owens made the Roaring Bull of Bashan take water at Paris Monday. In his usually irresponsible way, Mr. Denny had charged that Mr. Owens' nomination had been procured by fraud, when the Scott county man retorted: "I paid no attention to such charges made by democrats in the heart of disappointment, but when Denny in cold blood sticks his nose into our family fight and charges either directly or indirectly that my nomination was obtained by fraud or is tainted with fraud, then I say to him that the charge is a deliberate falsehood and infamous slander. I try to get that this may either make a clear issue between us on that subject or eliminate that question from the canvass altogether." The bull bellowed at this direct charge of lying, but he took good pains not to say anything that there was anything in. The republicans are claiming that Denny is making big inroads into the democratic ranks, but all the same Owens will be elected by from 6,000 to 9,000 majority.

At the last Congressional election there were 28,729 votes cast in the 11th district, divided as follows: Col. Silas Adams 17,087; Gov. Hindman 10,483 and the populist 1,259. On the same vote this time, with three or even two republicans on the track, it will be seen that the democratic nominee can easily win. The probability, too, is that the democratic vote will be largely increased. In 1892 there was nothing to stimulate the democrats in a hopeless struggle. This year the prize is in sight and they will use every endeavor to get it. The bloody 11th can and must be redeemed.

The C. H. & D. syndicate practically secured control of the Queen & Crescent at the election of directors Monday. The Thomas-Brice crowd was turned completely down, only two of the old board being elected and they were on both tickets. Mr. Eugene Zimmerman was one of the new directors, who will take complete control as soon as the road is out of the hands of the receiver.

Mr. T. G. Watkins, who has held the position longer and given better satisfaction all around than any other man who ever served the Courier-Journal as city editor, has been promoted to the position of commercial editor, while Edgar Turpin, who became known to fame from the full reports he made of the noted campaign in the 7th district, will preside over the city department.

THE Somerset convention, after denouncing the methods of the majority of the district committee and endorsing the record of Col. Silas Adams in Congress, unanimously nominated him for re-election. Col. Adams, who had been up to see Judge Sanfley, came in about that time and exhibited a copy of the order he had procured, enjoining the clerks of the various counties from placing Mr. Colson's name under the eagle on the ballots and he was received with great enthusiasm. It is not known what effect this nomination will have on Colson but if both run this race out, George Stone will be elected to Congress as sure as shot.

THE Voice, the National prohibition organ, published at New York, is arraying the temperance people against Mr. Morton, the republican candidate for governor of New York, by charging that much of the money he is so lavishly distributing among the voters was gotten by the sale of liquor at his hotel in Washington, the fashionable Shoreham. The World says the charges are true, and adds still another even worse than the first. It is that of deception and extortion. New England rot gut, is sold as Kentucky whisky, at 20c a drink.

BLAKELY celebrated his return to the tripod of the Covington Commonwealth by printing an edition in red and these are to remind him that his office will run knee deep in "red gore," if he publishes any more paragraphs like the one about Col. Craddock and us. Verhmm sat sap.

THREE lynchings in one week is pretty bad even for Kentucky, but so long as the laws are so lax we may expect the people to take the place of the courts in the administration of justice.

—Hon. Wm. Lindsay, Kentucky's Junior United States Senator, delivered a superb campaign speech in Music Hall, before an audience that was representative of the best people in Louisville.

—Insurance Commission Duncan has warned the people of Kentucky against 24 insurance companies which have no license to do business in this Commonwealth. Most of them are of the "wild-cat" variety.

—Fire at Houston, Tex., caused a loss of between $300,000 and $400,000. Two Sisters of St. Joseph were burned to death and a third so badly burned she can not live.

—Sam Pitts, a young farmer living near Paducah, while standing in front of a fire was attacked with a fit. He fell in the fire and was burned to death before assistance arrived.

—Willis Griffey, who assaulted Miss Lena Berry, with criminal intent, in Christian county and was taken to Princeton for keeping, was hung by a mob Sunday night.

—A Washington dispatch quotes a member of the Cabinet as authority for the assertion that President Cleveland will support and vote for Senator Hill for Governor of New York.

—Buchanan Berry was mortally wounded at Turner, Henry county, by C. B. James as the result of an argument growing out of the recent campaign in the Ashland district.

—Gov. Brown says that only his death can prevent him entering the race for Senator. Only the death of his opponents can give him any show for the Senatorship—Covington Commonwealth.

—Exports of merchandise from the United States during September, 1894, were $50,038,863, against $72,026,798 for September, 1893. Imports for the month were $50,389,510 for 1894 and $46,300,612 for 1893.

—In a quarrel among school boys at Brighton, W. Va., Willis Gardner, 15, was shot to death, his little brother, aged eight, fatally stabbed, and the teacher, Morris Pickering, was fearfully cut while trying to preserve order.

—A dead body of a man was found on the pavement in Dayton, O., with a note pinned on the lapel of his coat, saying: "Telegraph Samuel Westfield at Green, ville, O., that Charles Vance, of Poplar Ridge, O., shot and killed himself."

—The revival of business throughout Indiana has put a damper upon the extravagant claims of the Republicans. Within the past forty-five days factories employing 25,000 hands have resumed operations, with heavier pay-rolls than ever before.

—The New York Sun can draw on that Republican convention at Somerset for additions to its list of politicians with queer names. A. C. Gathers, of Owsley county, was the presiding officer, and among the orators were Col. Finnicum and Capt. Candiff, of Pulaski.—Times

—Miss Rose Mosenthal, of St. Louis, and Miss Tillie Ashley, of Hartford, Conn., engaged in a scuffling match at St. Louis for the female championship of America and the defeat of a curious crowd of men. The St. Louis woman won all the honors to be had from the event.

—The trial of Charles Hardin, Charlton Elrod, the Louisville photographer, Charles Taylor and James Morris, charged with the embezzlement of $35,000 from the Adams Express Company, which had been in progress for 2½ weeks in the Criminal court, Nashville, ended Wednesday in a verdict of "not guilty."

—A mob attempted to take a negro convicted and sentenced to 20 years for rape, from the jail at Washington C. H. O., and the militia, which was guarding him, opened fire. Three innocent persons were killed and a dozen or so wounded. Threats of dynamiting caused the governor to send a large number of additional troops to the scene.

—The Masons in session at Louisville elected H. H. Holman, of Madisonville, Grand Master; F. G. Gerard, Bowling Green, Deputy Grand Master; R. F. Peak, Bedford, Grand Senior Warden; Judge R. H. Thompson, Louisville, Grand Junior Warden. In the Grand Chapter the following officers were elected and installed: James D. Lewis, Bowling Green, Grand High Priest; John G. Orndorff, Russellville, Deputy Grand High Priest; Henry Ranshaw, Covington, Grand King; James W. Hopper, Louisville, Grand Scribe; Frank H. Johnson, Louisville, Grand Treasurer.

—FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.
 —Russia has 141,000,000 bushels of wheat for export this year.
 —F. K. Tribble sold to Montie Fox a bunch of 300 pound hogs at 40c.
 —Kidd, of Winchester, bought in Oldham 107 export cattle at 4½ to 4 6/7.

—Directum and Alix meet in a match race at Mytic Park, Boston, Saturday.
 —John Murphy sold to various parties a lot of two-year-old cattle at $25.
 —Frank Holtzclaw bought of John Simpson, of Garrard, a three-year-old mule for $160.

—At Col. T. W. Bottom's horse sale at Lebanon, 62 common horses were sold at an average of $55.55.
 —At a sale of Berkshire hogs at Marshall, Mo., 57 head averaged $21.50. The highest price was $75.

—Mr. John Blain's jennet dropped a fine jack colt, Tuesday night, which was found dead next morning.
 —The $5,000 Melrose Stakes at Nashville was won yesterday by the filly Impetuous, owned by Maj. H. C. McDowell, of Lexington.

—Constable J. H. Cunningham has sued Edward Corrigan, the horseman, for $500,000 damages for assaulting him and causing him to lose the use of one of his eyes.

—Good export steers are quoted in Cincinnati at 4.40 to 4.60 with a marked improvement in the trade, butcher cattle 3½ to 4½ and feeders at 2½ to 3½, hogs 5 to 5.30, sheep 2 to 3½.

—Wood & Lynn bought of S. T. Harris 55 110-pound sheep at 1c and of Mid. Lynn 38 of same for $35. They sold them in Cincinnati at 75c to $1.90 each.

—At a watermelon-eating contest in Nicholas county, four darkies got away with 19 watermelons. The melons gave out, or 19 more in all probability would have gone the way of the others.

—The law that once compelled farmers to post their premises by painted sign or by notice in a paper, has been repealed. Now the hunter has to ask the farmer's consent or be treated as a trespasser.

—The lowest price paid for hogs in Chicago since a record has been kept was in December, 1878, when they went down to $2.25 per 100 pounds, and that the highest was in December, 1894, when the price reached $13.

—W. E. McAfee's Hustler Russell, 2:12½, by Lord Russell, won the free-for-all pace and trot at Richmond, Va., Wednesday, in straight heats. Best time 2:18½. He will attempt to break the track record of 2:14 before he is sent home.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. J. W. Loving has resigned at Ghent, to accept the church at Burkeville, Va. He is from Fluvanna, that State, and is a young man of great promise.

—The Lexington Transcript says the meeting of Bro. Barnes in that city, now in progress, will continue ten days and will likely be the last the good evangelist will hold there.

—The Illinois Conference of Free Methodists, by a vote of 10 preachers and 21 laymen affirmative, and 17 preachers and 10 laymen negative, total 31 to 27, decided to ordain women as preachers.

—In Alameda, Cal., a burglar attempted to rob the house of the Rev. F. E. Wolf, formerly an Alaskan missionary. He was discovered and nearly killed by Mr. Wolf and his aged wife with a hatchet.

—Kentucky University, of Lexington, has raised by cash subscription $20,000 for the erection of a new building for the Bible College. The plans of the building have already been decided upon and the structure is to be a very handsome one.

—Mrs. Margaret Anderson Watts, the newly elected president of the W. C. T. U., of Kentucky, is a grand-daughter of Gov. Owsley and therefore a relative of the Owsleys of this section. She is said to be a finely educated and highly accomplished woman.

—Miss Jessie Ackerman, an "around-the-world" missionary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, arrived in Chicago, after a trip of 150,000 miles, which, she claims, is the longest journey ever made by a woman. She has been abroad for seven years, and her work has carried her through China, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, India, South Africa, Madagascar, Java, Singapore and the Hawaiian Islands.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock.....$200,000
 Surplus.....21,300

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $200,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.
 This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1874, has been re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1890, and has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 35 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, individuals, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.

The Directory of this Bank is composed of LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.—If your hair is falling out go to Ed Wilkinson's barber shop and have it stopped with the wonderful hair renewer and dandruff eradicator.

A DARK bay mare, 6-years-old, with mane lying on left side, was stolen from Mr. Ed Wilkinson at Liberty. He offers $25 for her return and $50 for the capture of the thief.

HENRY R. MILLS, son of Henry Mills, of this county, won the declamatory contest at the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester. He represented the Philomathian Society.

We believe that the entire democratic county ticket will be elected and by good and safe majorities. We know it will if every democrat will do his duty and put his X under the rooster.

H. F. HORTON, who moved from here to Highland some time ago, had his furniture store at that place burned Tuesday night. His loss is only about $100 and there was no insurance. The house belonged to the Lincoln Land Co., and was also uninjured. The fire originated from a defective flue.

TIM BUCHANAN, who was sent to jail from the East End to serve 154 days for assault and battery, got a pardon from Gov. Brown and was made free yesterday. He had served 84 days and had been a trusty most of the time since his confinement. Tim is one of the few colored democrats in this section and gets out just in time to put his X under the rooster.

The race for county attorney is waxing exceedingly warm in Marion county. Our former countyman, Mr. Benedict Spalding, the democratic nominee, is opposed by an independent named, Johnson, who charges that Mr. Spalding, said to Rev. E. M. McMillen, the Presbyterian preacher, that he was also a Presbyterian, and the first of the name to break away from the Catholic church for centuries. Mr. Spalding, supported by affidavits, is out in a card denying ever having had such conversation with Rev. McMillen, and also denies ever having such a conversation with any one else.

HON. GEORGE E. STONE, the next Congressman from the 11th district, was here yesterday, looking and feeling every inch a winner. He is going to make a most active canvass and no grass will grow under his feet this side of the election. He has made out the following list of appointments, which will keep him busy to fill as to reach many of the points he will have to ride horse back 30 or 40 miles. Beginning next Monday, Oct. 22, he will speak at Manchester, Clay county; on the 23d at Booneville, Owsley county; 25th at Hyden, Leslie county; 26th at Hazard, Perry county; 27th at Whitesburg, Letcher county; 28th at Harlan C. H.; 30th at Barbourville, Knox county; that night at Corbin, Whitley county; Nov. 1, at London, that night at East; Bernstadt; 3d at Columbia; that night at Gradyville; 3d at Edmonson; and 5th at Somerset. Speaking at 1 o'clock each day and 7 when at night.

WHENEVER a democrat tells you "I'm going to vote the secret ballot this time," you may put him down as a coward, who is going to stab some of the nominees in the back with his little cross mark. He has an imaginary grievance and can wreak his vengeance without being found out, under the new order of voting, invented for the weak and cowardly. No honorable man who participated in the primary election last March will vote against the nominees of that election, simply because his man got left or because he is out of sorts with the party. He is just as much in honor bound to support the ticket as if he had sworn in open court to do so and we take it that, but few will be unfaithful to their obligation. The total vote of the primary election cast now for the nominated ticket will elect it by several hundred and take the wind out of the republicans, who hope on account of supposed democratic disaffection to carry the day. Let every democrat do his duty and give the lie to the republican belief that they are dishonorable and treacherous.

GENTLEMEN, see our line of underwear. Severance & Son.

PAY your 1894 taxes at once and save 6 per cent. J. N. Menefee, sheriff.

CHASAPAR.—Call and examine a line of guns cheaper than ever before. A bargain for cash. W. B. McRoberts.

BRER DEMARKE seems to have had enough and unlike a hog he knows it. He didn't meet McCreary at Danville Monday.

Our time is limited. We must close our stock out at once; goods and fixtures to be sold regardless of cost. B. F. Jones & Son.

A BOY.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Bishop, of the McKinney Section, are rejoicing over the arrival of their first born. It is a bouncing boy.

The Odd Fellows in the United States 1895 paid out for the relief of distress, $3,313,000, which Mr. A. C. Sine says is equal to $9,076.75 every day, $374.20 every hour, $6.30 every minute.

WM. CHESTERFIELD, superintendent of the Kings Mountain Canning Co., will address the citizens of McKinney on the subject of Tomato Culture at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. An effort is being made to establish a canning factory there.

Some rascal stole a hind quarter of a large hog and some beef out of M. F. Elkin's cooling house the other night. The thief was evidently a democrat, according to Brer Demarke's stale, old story. Had he been a republican he would have taken the whole hog and everything else he could have gotten his hands on.

The Nicholasville barbecue was a shining success. Gov. McCreary, C. M. Clay, Jr., and others furnished the oratory and Gus Janbert served 2,000 gallons of burgo. In addition it took seven heaves, 68 lambs, besides about 300 chickens and vegetables of all kinds to feed the hungry crowd. Jessamine is all right and will roll up a big majority for the model Congressman.

Typhoid fever has done its deadly work with unusual precision at Shelby City, this season. There have been many cases and about one out of three has proved fatal. Mrs. James Coppage, after a long illness, died of it Tuesday, and a colored girl next day. Mrs. Coppage was an excellent woman and the mother of the two Coppage boys, the well-known train dispatchers.

An amusing story is told of the way a certain church member got out of sending a young man to school, who wanted to study for the ministry, and whom he had partially promised to assist. During Bro. Morrison's red hot meeting here several months ago, a good many men got warmed up and imagined they had attained the higher life and sinless perfection. Among them was our brother, whom we are telling about, and among those who professed religion was a callow youth, who immediately imagined he was called to preach the gospel. On the strength of the promise he got ready to go to school and went to the man who was to assist him for the lure. The big meeting ardor had cooled considerably and the good brother was not so much in the humor of educating men for the ministry as he had been. So when the young man went to him he told him this story: "While I was out West I heard of a man who saw in his dreams the letters P. C. in large and fiery characters. He at once took them to mean 'Preach Christ,' and the next Sunday, he got up in church to obey the command. He told the dream and his divination of it and then launched into a long and tiresome harangue. At its conclusion a brother arose and said, 'I have no doubt that you saw the letters P. C., but after hearing you attempt to preach I am sure you mistook the meaning of them. They didn't mean 'Preach Christ' at all, but 'Plow Corn' and I advise you to accept that interpretation of them and hie yourself to a corn field." "This is just what I would advise you," said the good brother to the youth, "for you will be more of a success at plowing corn than preaching Christ." And the young man went away sorrowful for he had bethought himself of the good and easy time he would have as a preacher, eating pie and spring chicken. And his last end was worse than the first, for the last he heard of him he had forged the name of his sweetheart's mother to a letter to the county clerk, requesting that he issue license for their marriage.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Belle King, of Conway, and Christopher Logsdon, of Berea, were to all appearances happily married at the former place a week ago. But the groom lit out in three days and despite the effort of the bride to find him, he is still non est.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Haldeman will celebrate their golden wedding at their handsome home on Fourth street, Louisville, October 30, and everybody will send happy greetings to the grand old man of the Courier-Journal and his worthy spouse.

—A dispatch from Richmond says: John L. Green and Miss Rachel Quisenberry eloped from here to Winchester and were married. Wm. W. Adams and Miss Monira Ellison, Walter Hockaday and Miss Lucy Duerson also eloped to Louisville and were married without interruption.

—The marriage of Mr. William Ludwell Evans and Miss Lizzie Williams Drye in Louisville Wednesday evening was the consummation of a long courtship. Some time before the public knew anything about it Mr. Evans found business at Hustonville other than that of selling groceries, but his frequent visits to the same house finally caused the good people of that place to regard the matter as something serious, and for the last year or so it has not been a question of would a marriage occur, but when would the marriage occur? This question was answered several months ago, when the more intimate friends were informed. These friends told others and thus the news went. Louisville was chosen as the place for the marriage, first because of the illness of the bride's oldest brother and secondly because of the novelty of the thing, and Wednesday morning, accompanied by Miss Jennie Reid and Messrs. Wray Wharton, June H. Reid and W. S. Drye, the happy pair left for that point. The ceremony over, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, accompanied by Miss Reid and Mr. Wharton, left for Mammoth Cave and other points. After their bridal tour, Mr. Adams and bride will come to Stanford and for the present make their home at the Myers House. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Prissie Drye and is a most lovable lady. She is a stately brunette, is accomplished and is the possessor of a disposition that is gentleness itself. She will make a devoted helpmeet and the man who won her heart will never have cause to regret his choice. Mr. Evans is a fine gentleman, splendidly qualified for business and is one of the most popular drummers on the road. That this union will prove a happy one, we have every reason to believe and that it will the INTERIOR JOURNAL joins their hosts of friends in wishing.

To The Ladies!

At my store you will find one of the finest stocks of Millinery and Embroidery Material ever brought to Stanford. I have paid cash for my goods and sell them for cash, so low that you will be forced to buy from me. An examination will convince you and you are invited to make it. MRS. A. A. MCKINNEY.

A Treat For the Ladies.

Miss Moore will arrive October 1st, with everything that is new and nobby in the way of

MILLINERY.

Please call and examine my stock before buying. My prices shall be the lowest. Thanking you for past favors, respectfully,

KATE DUDDERAR, Manager.

TO THE LADIES!

Miss Jarboe, my trimmer, is in the cities buying my Fall and Winter Stock, and I will not make my usual fall trip. Both Miss Jarboe and her purchases will arrive next week and you are cordially invited to call.

MISS LIZZIE BEAZLEY, Stanford, Ky.

Sam Johnson's "at Home."

Sam Johnson, an Austin colored man, who keeps the sheriff busy hunting him up, is once more an inmate of the Travis county bastille. Jim Webster, a chum of the accused, called at the jail to console his friend.

"What do you want here?" asked the jailer in a gruff voice.

"I jess called, sah, ter make inquiry, sah, if my friend, Mr. Sam Johnson, is at home, sah?"—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

It Changed Their Minds.

Fair Visitor—So you have decided not to sell your house?

Fair Hostess—Yes. You see, we placed the matter in the hands of an estate agent, but after reading his lovely advertisement about our property neither John nor myself could think of parting with such a wonderful and perfect home.—Pearson's Weekly.

Don't Understand Human Nature.

"Yes," said the proprietor of the barber shop, "he was a very good barber, but we had to let him go. He didn't understand the business."

"What did he do?"

"He forgot to say to a baldheaded customer that his hair needed trimming to-day."—Indianapolis Journal.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

Justice with Mercy.

Magistrate—You are charged with having sixteen wives. What have you to say for yourself, sir?

Prisoner—I really couldn't help myself, judge.

"Nonsense!"

"Discharged."—N. Y. Weekly.

Off Told Tales.

Friend—See here, Scribbler, that joke of yours you showed me is old.

Scribbler—Well, what of it? Being human we funny men are bound to repeat ourselves sometimes.

Friend—That's not what I object to, it's that you repeat each other so often.

—Arkansas Traveler.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptoms of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions. It positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. Hardly a week passes but what some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia, a severe cold or sore throat may be promptly relieved and the cure in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Expeller is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes violent. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week, or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 15-cent bottle at once and you will never regret it.
